

FAQS – FOR APPLICANT FAMILIES

Who is eligible to receive tuition scholarships from APESF?

- Any K-12 student enrolled in a partner private school
- Any preschool student with a documented disability enrolled in a partner private school

Is there a deadline for applying?

- All families must apply one time per school year to be considered
- An application must be submitted by the last day of the month in order for a student to be considered for the following month's distribution (APESF does monthly distributions, with the exception of January and May.)
- Typically, the application process for a particular school year opens some time in April and closes some time in March. Exact dates will be listed on APESF's application page when determined each year.

plan from an Arizona public or charter school) or displaced qualification (have been in Arizona foster care system at some point in time).

What happens once I apply?

- After applying, you should receive a confirmation email letting you know we received the application.
- If there are any documents you were not able to upload when you applied, you may send those via email, fax or mail.
- Parents are notified on the last day of the month (in distribution months) if, and only if, their child is receiving a scholarship.

Anything else I should know?

- All awards are one-time awards, and there is no guarantee prior to the actual scholarship notice being sent of funding that will be available for your child.
- A student may receive one award notice, multiple or none throughout the school year, depending on funding-available.
- You may have your family and friends recommend your student with their tax-credit donation.
